

As a resident of the state of Indiana protected under Indiana's telephone privacy law, I strongly object to attempts to weaken it by permitting banks to make unsolicited calls to their customers for the purpose of offering further services or for any other reason.

Thank you

John Hall